

proceedings to be printed accordingly.

It is ordered that the severall Receivers and Navall Officers have to prepare their Accounts ag<sup>t</sup> the meeting of y<sup>e</sup> next Generall Court to come to and sent for England.

It is also being required to send an Account of the Lordps of Leines the Councill of Trade and Plantations, of what persons in the Colonies are fitting to beare Armes. The same is referred unto Military Officers are Comissionated.

It is also pleased to inquire how many persons in y<sup>e</sup> Colonies are of the Profession of Arms and where they live. The Gent<sup>l</sup> of the Councill as say that the Country is well supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup>, and that they will supplye the Colonies with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause. It is also ordered that the Colonies shall be supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause. It is also ordered that the Colonies shall be supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause.

It is also pleased to inquire how many persons in y<sup>e</sup> Colonies are of the Profession of Arms and where they live. The Gent<sup>l</sup> of the Councill as say that the Country is well supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup>, and that they will supplye the Colonies with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause. It is also ordered that the Colonies shall be supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause.

It is also pleased to inquire how many persons in y<sup>e</sup> Colonies are of the Profession of Arms and where they live. The Gent<sup>l</sup> of the Councill as say that the Country is well supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup>, and that they will supplye the Colonies with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause. It is also ordered that the Colonies shall be supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause.

It is also pleased to inquire how many persons in y<sup>e</sup> Colonies are of the Profession of Arms and where they live. The Gent<sup>l</sup> of the Councill as say that the Country is well supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup>, and that they will supplye the Colonies with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause. It is also ordered that the Colonies shall be supplied with Armes and Am<sup>unition</sup> as they shall see cause.