

and with this...
Virginia, the...
Governor General of the Colony... did stand in favour of this...
Gentlemen of this Board and Major Dent... in Virginia upon meeting of...
in order to adjust that...
Attorney General and concerned... as well for his Majesty as others in the provincial Court... would happen at the same time, his Majesty thought to have adjourned... the provincial Court - but afterwards meeting severally... the Council whose thought he had been at in his late progress... they were of the contrary opinion for that they did not think... the Ordinaries in this Town would be capable to supply the...
Entertainment both of Assembly and provincial Court at one... time, and that his Majesty considering that he was but newly arrived... he did not know what construction of people might put upon... such adjournment - and that for these reasons he had written... to the Governor of Virginia that Major Dent could not... write upon this being so concerned for his Majesty's other...

his Majesty acquaints the Board that he had ordered... make wood to acquaint those Indians that if they were...
in peace and quietly set down they should be kindly...
but has not as yet heard from the said Major...
his Majesty says he is informed... now we depend on the...

