Colonel John Addison Colonel John Hammond Council

It is by the said Court present that the Occasion of his now calling them together was to advise and consider what party of Rangers would be sufficient to be kept out ranging the Winter Season for Security of Frontiers - And whereas the said Rangers were a great Charge to the Country whether a lesser number than at present kept out might not suffice, provided a sufficient Number may be sent out early in the Spring
