

appeare upon his call & take ye, and in case that no such appearance shall be made that he shall have leave by said Army if he come nearer and that afterwards he shall by calling a loud endeavour to give notice to the English of his nearer approach. And if any Englishman shall kill any Indian that shall come unpermitted and give notice and deliver ye by Army or if he shall dye for it as well as an Indian that kills an Englishman, And in case the Indian and English meet and in the the Woods every Indian shall be bound immediately upon call to throw down his Arms - And in case an Indian do meeting an Englishman - shall refuse to throw down his Arms upon call he shall be deemed as an Enemy.

4th July. The privilege of Crabbing fowling hunting and fishing shall be preserved by Indians inviolably.

5th July. That every Indian that kills or steals an Hogg Calf or other Beast or any other good shall undergoe the same punishment as an Englishman doth for the like offence.

6th July. In case any Servant or Slave run away from their English Masters and come to any of the Indian Towns within the Territory of s<sup>d</sup> said Jungoughpawough and her Subjects they shall be bound to apprehend the said fugitives and bring them to the next English plantation to be conveyed to their Masters and in case any Indian or Indians shall convey or assist any such