W E D N E S D A Y, February 19, 1777.

SENATE met according to adjournment. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. William Paca, Esq; appeared in the house.

A memorial from the council of safety, relative to the impracticability of fitting out two armed cutters, to cruize between cape Hatteras and Chingoteague inlet, for the purpose of giving early intelligence to inward bound vessels of the ships of war now stationed in the bay, on the bounty and terms prescribed by the general assembly, was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates, and sent by George Plater, Esq;

Mr. Ridgely and Mr. Bordley from the house of delegates, bring in and deliver to Mr. President the following message :

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, February 19, 1777.

May it please your honours,

THIS house are informed by a letter from Samuel Chase, Esq; one of the delegates of this state in congress, and which is transmitted to your honours with this message, that the appointment of general officers is procrastinated, which gives the general assembly an opportunity of expressing their sense on a subject of such momentous concern to this state. This house have agreed to recommend, in conjunction with your honours, a general officer, and hope for your concurrence.

By order,

D

G. DUVALL, cl. ho. del.
