

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JUNE 13, 1781.

RESOLVED, That all those persons mentioned in his Excellency the Governor's letter of the 29th of May, who have been suspected of being guilty of treasonable practices, should be bound over for their appearance to the next general court, and that the other persons mentioned in the same letter should be obliged to give security for their good behaviour during the war.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be requested, in case it appears to them that the going at large of George Vansant Mann is dangerous to this state, that they commit him to close gaol, or otherwise restrain him, as they may judge proper.

RESOLVED, That as this house is informed the said George Vansant Mann stands committed for treason, such commitment, if any, ought to stand till discharged by due course of law, and that the said George Vansant Mann ought, as to that charge, to be subject to the ordinary course of law.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be requested to take order therein.

By order,

F. GREEN, clk.

Which were read, assented to with the following amendments, and sent to the house of delegates by Charles Carroll, Esq; Barrister.

Amendments proposed. After the word "practices" in the fifth line, insert "except those whose going at large the governor and council may think dangerous to the state." In the same line strike out "should," and insert "shall." After the word "letter" in the eighth line, insert "except as aforesaid," and strike out "should" and insert "shall." At the end of the first resolve insert "RESOLVED, That the governor and council confine to such place or places as they may think proper, or commit to gaol, any of the said persons whose going at large they may have good reason to believe will be dangerous to this state, or the citizens thereof."
