

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, NOVEMBER, 1782. 33

The bill for the more effectual collection of fines and forfeitures, and for other purposes therein mentioned, was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill for the more effectual paving the streets of Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county, was sent to the house of delegates, with the following message, by William Hindman, Esq;

By THE SENATE, JANUARY 5, 1783.

GENTLEMEN,

WE agree to all the amendments for the bill for the more effectual paving the streets of Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county, except that proposed for page 16 in the 21st line, which if adopted would read, "That it shall be lawful for the inhabitants of the town of Baltimore qualified to vote for delegates, real property in said town above thirty pounds, delegates, on the first Monday, &c." We apprehend this to have been a mistake of the clerk, and that the insertion should have been, "or having real property in said town above thirty pounds," after the word delegates in the twenty-third line. This being done we shall agree to the amendment.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

MONDAY, January 6, 1783.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Messieurs Cadwalader and Wheeler, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the engrossed bills from No. 13 to 16 inclusive, with the paper bills thereof, which engrossed bills were thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, January 6, 1783: Read and assented to."

Messieurs Taylor and Smithson, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the following message:

By THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 6, 1783.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE wish the act to raise the supplies for the current year, and the other laws passed by the two houses, and which are engrossed, may have the seal of the state annexed and be signed by the Governor in the usual manner this day, and we are ready to attend in the senate for that purpose.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Messieurs M^cMechen and Fell, from the house of delegates, deliver to the president the bill for the more effectual paving the streets in Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county, with the following message:

By THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 6, 1783.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

IN answer to your message of yesterday by William Hindman, Esq; we agree to the alteration proposed, and have herewith returned you the bill.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read, the amendments proposed to the bill agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

The resolution directing the delegates to congress to lay before the general assembly the state of the federal debt and transactions of congress, was read, assented to, and, with the following messages, sent to the house of delegates by John Henry, Esq;

By THE SENATE, JANUARY 6, 1783.

GENTLEMEN,

AS His Excellency General Count de Rochambeau is now in town, to whose important services the United States are greatly indebted, we think it proper for the general assembly to acknowledge those services in a vote of thanks to so distinguished a character, and for this purpose we have named John Henry and James M^cHenry, Esquires, to join any members who may be appointed by your house.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

By THE SENATE, JANUARY 6, 1783.

GENTLEMEN,

WE shall endeavour to have the engrossed bills passed this session, agreeable to your request, prepared so as to receive this morning the seal and signature of the governor.

By order,

J. MACCUBBIN, clk.

The engrossed bills from No. 8 to 16 inclusive, were read, assented to, and the paper bills thereof, so endorsed, sent to the house of delegates by Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq;
