

foreign country, for allowing discounts, and for repealing an act of assembly therein mentioned; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Oneale, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, A Supplement to an act empowering Martin Harry, administrator of John Waley, to sell and dispose of a certain house and lot in the town of Skipton, in Washington county, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 10, 1785: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 13, 1785: Read the second time and will pass.
"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill, entitled, An act to extend the time limited for bringing in and settling claims against this state by the citizens thereof, and for limiting the time for bringing in and settling claims against the said state by citizens of the United States, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. In the 2d page and 4th line from the bottom, strike out the words "the said" and insert "this." In the 3d line of the same page, after the word "of" insert "of any other;" and in the same page strike out "September" and insert "December." At the end of the bill insert, "unless the person having such claim be an infant, feme covert, or person non compos mentis, or in some foreign country, in which cases one year shall be allowed to bring in and settle such claim after the disability removed, or the return of such person to this or some one of the United States, as the case may be.

"And be it enacted, That a copy of this act, under the great seal, shall be sent as soon as may be to the respective executive powers of the United States by the governor of this state, with a request that the substance of this act be published."

The president lays before the senate a petition of James Brice, praying that a certain resolution may be confirmed which passed in favour of Elizabeth Dulany; which was read, and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, December 14, 1785.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The president lays before the senate a petition from a number of the inhabitants of Harford county, praying that the court-house and prison for the said county may be erected at Havre-de-Grace; a petition from Daniel Heester, in answer to Jonathan Hagar's petition, praying that the act of assembly passed in favour of Rosannah Heester, wife of the said Daniel, may not be repealed, and certain conveyances declared null and void; and a petition of Elijah Johnson, respecting the price of a certain tract of land; which were severally read, referred to the consideration of the house of delegates, and, with the bill, entitled, An act to extend the time limited for bringing in and settling claims against this state by the citizens thereof, and for limiting the time for bringing in and settling claims against the said state by the citizens of the United States, and the petition of James Brice, sent by Edward Lloyd, Esq;

Mr. Graves, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry persons, securities of Thomas Boyer, late sheriff and collector of Kent county, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 9, 1785: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 14, 1785: Read the second time and will pass.
"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Daniel Carroll, Esq; brings in and delivers to the president a bill, entitled, A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to authorise the issuing grants for the lands therein mentioned; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Norris, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, A Supplement to the act for establishing a company for opening and extending the navigation of Patowmack river, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 14, 1785: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 14, 1785: Read the second time by especial order and will pass.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."
Which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by Samuel Hughes, Esq;

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

T H U R S D A Y, December 15, 1785.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Steret, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act to grant to Gabriel Peterson Vanhorn an exclusive right to keep stage carriages on the public