

A F F I R M A T I V E.

The honourable Daniel Carroll, Esq; president, the honourable John Henry, Thomas Stone, Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, John Smith, Samuel Hughes, William Perry, and Daniel Bowley, Esquires.

N E G A T I V E,

The honourable Edward Lloyd, Esq;

Determined in the affirmative, endorsed will pass, and, with the bill for the payment of the journal of accounts, and the supplement to an act, entitled, An act ascertaining the mode of granting titles to the purchasers of certain confiscated property, was sent to the house of delegates by Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq;

The following message was prepared and agreed to:

BY THE SENATE, MARCH 12, 1786.

GENTLEMEN,

WE propose to close the session this forenoon, and have agreed to adjourn to the third Monday in September next.

By order,

J. DORSEY, clk.

The resolution respecting the auditor's appointing one or two additional clerks, was read and assented to.

The resolution respecting the auditor's settling the accounts of the state agent, was read and unanimously dissented to.

The following message was prepared:

BY THE SENATE, MARCH 12, 1786.

GENTLEMEN,

WE cannot consent to the resolve sent by Mr. Bowie, because we apprehend it will give a power to the auditor to determine what expences are to be allowed to the agent. This house will agree to a resolve, that the state will pay all legal costs, and the fees paid, or to be paid, by the state agent, to attornies, counsel, solicitors, and the officers in chancery, in the suits in the high court of chancery of Great-Britain respecting the bank stock, the five hundred pounds sterling already advanced the state agent being first applied to these purposes.

By order,

J. DORSEY, clk.

And the question being put, That the same be agreed to? The yeas and nays being called for appeared as follow:

A F F I R M A T I V E.

The honourable John Henry, Thomas Stone, John Smith, Samuel Hughes, William Perry, and Daniel Bowley, Esquires.

N E G A T I V E.

The honourable Daniel Carroll, Esquire, president, the honourable Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Edward Lloyd, Esquires.

Determined in the affirmative, and, with the above message and resolutions, was sent to the house of delegates by John Smith, Esq;

Mr. Norris, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the engrossed bills No. 88 and 89, with the paper bills thereof, which engrossed bills were thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, March 12, 1786: Read and assented to.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

And also the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, MARCH 12, 1786.

RESOLVED, That this state will pay all legal costs, and the fees paid, or to be paid, by the state agent, to attornies, counsel, and the officers in chancery, in the suits in the high court of chancery of Great-Britain respecting the bank stock, the five hundred pounds sterling already advanced the state agent being first applied to these purposes.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Mr. Gale, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the bill for the regulation of the poor in the several counties of this state, &c. with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, MARCH 12, 1786.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE have determined not to pass the bill for the regulation of the poor, &c. It imposes a tax of ten-pence current money per month on every seaman on board any vessel not less than 50 tons burthen, to be paid by the master at the time of entry, to be applied to the relief of sick and infirm seamen; and also a tax of £. 2000 on the property in Baltimore county, to be applied to the rebuilding and repairing the alms-house and work-house of the said county; but we have not time to examine the arguments offered by your honours to prove that it is not a money bill, and shall leave this subject to future discussion.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The engrossed bills No. 88 and 89, were read and assented to.

The resolution respecting the account of the state agent for costs and fees, was read, and the question being put, That the same be assented to? The yeas and nays being called for appeared as follow:
