

26 VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, November, 1788.

The bill, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, An act to alter the place for holding elections for delegates to the general assembly in Baltimore county, was read the second time and will pass at 11 o'clock, to-morrow morning. The senate adjourns till 9 o'clock, with the following resolution: "Resolved, That the bill, entitled, An act to alter the place for holding elections for delegates to the general assembly in Baltimore county, be referred to the committee on elections, and if it is found to be a publick bill, or trivial, to be referred to either the committee on publick bills or the committee on private bills." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

The senate met. Present as in the forenoon, except Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, who is indisposed.

The bill, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, An act to alter the place for holding elections for delegates to the general assembly in Baltimore county, the bill entitled, An act for enacting laws for collection of officers fees by execution, and this resolution respecting Benjamin Laming, John Sterett and Co. and Samuel Street, were sent to the house of delegates by Richard Ridgely, Esquire, on the 24th instant, and the same was read the first time, and will pass at 11 o'clock, to-morrow morning.

Mr. Harwood, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to enable the high court of admiralty to continue certain causes therein mentioned, endorsed, "By the house of delegates, December 20, 1788: Read the first and second time by especial order and will pass at 11 o'clock, to-morrow morning." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

Which was ordered to be engrossed.

The bill, entitled, An act concerning the public roads in Baltimore county, was read the second time and will not pass.

The resolution in favour of the merchants who suffered by the high tide on the 24th of July last, was read and assented to with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. In the 2d line strike out "of Baltimore-town" and insert "in this state." In the 3d line strike out "Baltimore-town" and insert "their respective districts."

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1788.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, appeared in the senate.

Mr. Banckes, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act to provide for the collection of taxes due in Anne Arundel county, and for other purposes, endorsed, "By the house of delegates, December 19, 1788: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table."

"By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session."

"By the house of delegates, December 20, 1788: Read the second time by especial order and will pass." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

"By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

"By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

"By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session." By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

Mr. Lecompte, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the resolution respecting applications to the legislature, endorsed, "By the house of delegates, December 21, 1788: Read and assented to with the proposed amendments."

Amendments proposed. In the 6th line strike out the word "seven" and insert "ten." In the second line from the bottom, strike out "seven" and insert "ten." to close out the session.

Which were read the first and second time, assented to, and inserted in the original.

The resolution respecting Beriah Maybury, was read the second time and dissented to.

The bill, entitled, An act for the relief of John Campbell and Marion his wife, was read the second time by especial order and will not pass, and, with the above resolution, the bill, entitled,

An act concerning the public roads in Baltimore county, and the resolution respecting the merchants who suffered on the 24th July last, sent to the house of delegates by Peregrine Flighman, Esquire.

Mr. Sherwood, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 21, 1788.

Whereas it appears to the general assembly, that Samuel Thomas, late collector of taxes in Talbot county, and William Banckes, late collector of taxes in Caroline county, have paid to the treasurer the full amount of the taxes to be by them collected in their respective counties; Resolved, That the said Samuel Thomas and William Banckes be and they are hereby discharged from all interest due on arrears of taxes, provided, that if the said Samuel Thomas and William Banckes, or either of them, have received any interest on taxes from any person or persons of their respective counties, he or they shall return the same to the person or persons from whom it was received.

By order, Mr. Harwood, clk. to the president, to close out the session.

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table, and, on the second reading, assented to.

Mr. Quinn, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following resolution:

By