

The bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of certain purchasers of confiscated property, was read the second time and will pass with the following amendments:

Amendments proposed. After the words "original act," in the 5th line, insert "lying formerly within the temporary line of Pennsylvania, and now included within the limits of the state of Maryland." After the word "lands," in the 9th line, strike out the words "till the 10th day of May next," and insert "and included in the former act, until the twentieth day of March next, and against such persons as purchasers of such property so circumstanced, and intended to be relieved by this act, until the tenth day of June next." At the end of the bill add "and the same additional time is hereby given to any person or persons interested in the lands comprehended in this act to exhibit his or their petition to the chancellor, to obtain an investigation of their respective rights or titles, in the manner provided in the said original act, and according to the true intention thereof."

The senate adjourns till 4 o'clock.

P O S T M E R I D I E M.

The senate met.

The bill, entitled, An act to enable certain commissioners to make partition of a tract or parcel of land called Bohemia manor, lying in part within Cæcil county, of this state, and part in Newcastle county, of the state of Delaware, and for other purposes therein mentioned, was read the second time and will pass with the following amendments.

Amendments proposed. Strike out from the word "state," in the 13th line of the 1st page, to the word "deceased;" in the 16th line of the same page, and insert "is entitled to one undivided moiety of the respective parts descended from his said father and the said Anne Bouchell, in common with the said Edward Oldham and Mary his wife, who are seized of the other moiety of the same in right of the said Mary, who is sister of the said idiot, and daughter of the said Joseph Enfor, deceased." After the words "to wit," in the 9th line of the 3d page, strike out to the end of the clause, and insert "as to such part thereof as lieth in this state, to be held by the said Joseph Enfor in severalty, and as to such part thereof as lieth in the state of Delaware, one moiety to be held by the said Joseph Enfor in severalty, and the other moiety to be held by the said Mary and Edward Oldham in right of the said Mary in severalty." At the end of the bill insert the following proviso: "And provided always, that this act shall not take effect until the consent of the said Peter Lawson be first had in writing, and filed in the chancery court."

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, December 11, 1789.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Samuel Hughes, Esquire, has leave of absence.

The bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish a market at the market-house in Chester-town, in Kent county, and for the regulation of the said market, was read the second time by especial order, passed, and, with the bill for the relief of Benjamin Rogers, the bill for the draining a marsh and branch, known by the name of the Long Marsh, lying in Queen-Anne's and Caroline counties, the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act for the relief of certain purchasers of confiscated property, the bill to enable certain commissioners to make partition of a tract or parcel of land called Bohemia Manor, lying in part within Cæcil county, of this state, and part in Newcastle county, in the state of Delaware, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and the resolutions respecting Samuel Chase and Thomas Miles, were sent to the house of delegates by Daniel Bowley, Esquire.

The bill, entitled, An act to alter and amend that part of the public road leading from Port-Tobacco, in Charles county, to Leonard-town, in Saint-Mary's county, which lies between Allen's Fresh and Pile's creek, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Charles Worthington, of Montgomery county, in the state of Maryland, was read the second time and will not pass.

The bill, entitled, An act to permit William Kearney, of Queen-Anne's county, to import into this state certain slaves bequeathed to his wife by the last will and testament of her father, was read the second time and will not pass.

The bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the removal of the seat of justice from Charles-town to the Head of Elk, in Cæcil county, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill, entitled, An act to prevent the going at large of swine in Belle-Air, in Harford county, was read the second time and will not pass.

Which five last mentioned bills were sent to the house of delegates by Charles Carroll, Esquire.

The bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act for securing the title of the proprietors of lots and houses in Charles-town, in Charles county, passed November, seventeen hundred and seventy-nine, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill, entitled, An act to enable the justices of Saint-Mary's county court to assess a sum of money on the said county for the support of an idiot, the child of Benjamin Bradburn, in the said county, was read the second time and will pass with the following amendment:

Amendment proposed. "Provided the said justices shall be satisfied that the said Benjamin Bradburn is unable to support and maintain the said idiot, and provided the sum so to be allowed, does not exceed seven pounds ten shillings current money for any year that such allowance may be necessary."