S A T U R D A Y, November 20, 1790.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday. Richard Ridgely, Esquire, appeared in the senate. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The message and resolution respecting the choice of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States; the resolution respecting the payment of monies received on account of arrearages of taxes by William Campbell, the state's agent; the resolution respecting the payment of monies arising from the collection of arrearages of taxes and the appropriation thereof; and the resolution respecting all money which shall be paid into the treasury of the western shore by collectors appointed since the first day of January, 1783, or their securities; were sent to the house of delegates by William Perry, Esquire.

Mr. Chaille, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following message, and resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 20, 1790.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE have dissented to your resolution of yesterday by the honourable Charles Carroll, as we conceive the same contrary to the privileges of this house. The granting of money we conceive belongs to the immediate representatives of the people. We send you a resolution in favour of the said Roger Skiventon and Robert Britt, and we have added John Sheredine, late a soldier of the first Maryland regiment, thereto.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 20, 1790.

RESOLVED, That the auditor-general, under the direction of the governor and council, be and he is hereby directed to examine the musters of the Maryland line, and other documents that may be produced, and liquidate the depreciation on the pay of, and grant certificates to, Roger Skiventon, late a soldier in captain Ford's company, and to Robert Britt, late a soldier in captain Dorsey's company, and to John Sheredine, late a soldier of the first Maryland regiment, or to their legal representatives, for that sum which may appear to be justly due to them agreeably to the regulations heretofore established.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

And also the resolution respecting Roger Skiventon and Robert Britt, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 19, 1790: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

"By the house of delegates, November 20, 1790: Read the second time and dissented to.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

The resolution respecting Roger Skiventon, Robert Britt, and John Sheredine, was read the first and second time by especial order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by John Smith, Esquire.

Mr. Bayly, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 20, 1790.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

THIS house concur with your honours in the opinion that there are some defects in our constitution and form of government which ought to be remedied; and we think the mode proposed by your honours, that a joint committee of both houses should be appointed to revise the constitution, most proper to be adopted. This house have appointed Mr. Brice Worthington, Mr. Duvall, Mr. Stone, Mr. Tilghman, Mr. Forrest, Mr. Craik, and Mr. Burgess, to join the members nominated by your honours to effect the salutary purpose.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Mr. Downes, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act to enable Richard Tilghman Earle to sell and convey certain property of his deceased father Richard Tilghman Earle, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 20, 1790: Read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

Mr. Ott, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act to enable the inhabitants of Saint John's parish, in Queen-Anne's and Caroline counties, to elect vestrymen and churchwardens for said parish, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 18, 1790: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

"By the house of delegates, November 20, 1790: Read the second time and will pass.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

On motion, on the second reading of the resolution respecting the advance of money for the purpose of erecting buildings for the accommodation of the general government, the question was put, That the said resolution be assented to? Determined in the affirmative.
