

"By the house of delegates, December 6, 1790: Read the second time and will pass.
"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

And a bill, entitled, An act to establish a third inspection of tobacco in George-town, in Montgomery county, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 30, 1790: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 6, 1790: Read the second time and will pass.
"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill enabling the treasurer of the western shore to issue certificates in the cases therein mentioned, was read the second time and will not pass.

The bill enabling the justices of Baltimore county to grant a trial in the case therein mentioned, was read the second time and will not pass.

The bill, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of John Sewell, of Talbot county, and Eve his wife, was read the second time and will pass with the following amendment:

Amendment proposed. "Provided always, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to illegitimate any issue of the said John Sewell, and Eve his wife, lawfully begotten prior to the birth of the said mulatto child, for having which she hath been convicted in Talbot county court as aforesaid."

Mr. Steele, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to establish pilots, and to regulate their fees, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 6, 1790: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 6, 1790: Read the second time by especial order and committed for amendment.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 6, 1790: Read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.
By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill for the relief of the poor in Calvert county, was read the second time and will pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T U E S D A Y, December 7, 1790.

THE senate met. Present as on yesterday, except Daniel Carroll, Esquire. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill for the relief of the poor in Calvert county, the bill annulling the marriage of John Sewell, of Talbot county, and Eve his wife, the bill enabling the justices of Baltimore county to grant a trial in the case therein mentioned, the bill enabling the treasurer of the western shore to issue certificates in the cases therein mentioned, and the bill, entitled, A Supplement to the act for the draining of a marsh and branch known by the name of the Long Marsh, lying in Queen-Anne's and Caroline counties, were sent to the house of delegates by Richard Ridgely, Esquire.

Mr. Harwood, from the house of delegates, delivers to the president the following message and resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 6, 1790.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE have rejected the resolution originated in your house in favour of William Moore, because we conceive it to be the exclusive right of the house of delegates to originate all bills or resolutions tending to draw money from the treasury. It is of the utmost importance to preserve inviolate this great right, vested by the constitution in the immediate representatives of the people, and although the present instance is, in itself, of little consequence, we think it incumbent on us to express our disapprobation of the slightest attempt to invade our privilege; we wish to relieve Mr. Moore, and have therefore sent your honours a resolution which will have that effect.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 6, 1790.

Whereas it is represented by the petition of William Moore, one of the executors of Isaac Horsey, deceased, who was executor of Outerbridge Horsey, late of Somerset county, deceased, that a certificate, numbered 1, was granted, on the fifteenth day of September, seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, to the said Outerbridge Horsey, by Edward Hindman, then the treasurer of the eastern shore, for two thousand three hundred and thirty-three dollars and one third of a dollar; which certificate has hitherto remained unliquidated, on account, as it is alleged, of the indisposition and infirmity of the said Outerbridge Horsey, who died in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, after the time limited for the liquidation of such claims; and the general assembly being desirous that the said certificate should be liquidated, on proof being made of the above allegation, therefore, RESOLVED, That the auditor-general be and he is hereby directed, on receiving satisfactory proof of the infirmity, or continued indisposition, of the said Outerbridge Horsey, which may have prevented his application to the office during the remainder of his life, to liquidate the said certificate, and to give the said William Moore the same relief as the party interested would have been entitled to if application for a settlement had been made to the proper officer in time.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.
The