And also the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 22, 1792.

Whereas it appears to this general assembly, that in the year 1785 Richard Waters purchased a lot of the Indian lands on Nanticoke river, of the then intendant, which lot was supposed to contain 395 acres; that at the time of the said sale, a claim being made to a part of the said lot by the heirs of the late colonel Ryder, it was stipulated between the intendant and the aforesaid Richard Waters, that in case the said claim should be established, a valuation should be made by indifferent persons of the part of the lot taken away by said claim, and a deduction made from the amount accordingly; that no step has been taken on the part of the state to obtain a decision of the said claim, and judgment has been recovered, and execution issued, against the aforesaid Richard Waters for the whole amount of the said lot, without regard to the agreement aforesaid, or the possession of the claimants of a part of the said lot; RESOLVED, That the attorney-general be directed to institute an action of trespass and ejectment in the general court of the eastern shore, to recover the possession of the property sold; and that until a decision of the same shall take place, all process against the said Richard Waters be countermanded and discontinued, and that all costs incurred by the said Richard Waters, by reason of said suit, be paid by the state.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts, was read the second time and will pass.
