

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act to extend the time for the late sheriff of Montgomery county to complete his collection, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 5, 1792: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 7, 1792: Read the second time and will pass.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."
And a bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act directing the times, places and manner, of holding elections for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, and for appointing electors on the part of this state for choosing a president and vice-president of the United States, and for the regulation of the said elections, and also to repeal the act of assembly therein mentioned, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 4, 1792: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 7, 1792: Read the second time and will pass.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

And also the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 7, 1792.

RESOLVED, That the patent issued to Elizabeth Smoot, for Pawpaw Fields, part of Snow-Hill Manor, be returned into the land-office and cancelled, and that the register of the land-office of the western shore be and he is hereby empowered and required to issue a patent therefor to William Barton Smoot, of St. Mary's county, he paying the usual fees of office.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which bills and resolution were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill, entitled, An act to open a road through part of Montgomery county, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk of the senate.

On motion, Charles Carroll, Esquire, brings in and delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act respecting the trustees of the new church in the city of Annapolis; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Judith Wallace and her children, of Charles county, was read the second time and passed with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. Second page, at the end of the first clause, insert, "Provided, that the said trustee or trustees, before he or they proceed to act, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, with such security as the said court shall approve of, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the trust reposed in them by this act; which said bond, on a breach of the said condition, shall be liable to be sued and proceeded on for the use and benefit of the said Judith Wallace and her said children, or any of them, in the same manner that testamentary bonds are proceeded on by the law of this state." 2d page, 8th line, after the word "conveyed," strike out from the word "subject," to the word "mother," inclusive, in the 9th line, and insert in the room of them, "and the said Judith Wallace shall have the same right of dower in the land so purchased and conveyed by the said trustee or trustees, that she is now entitled to in the land which descended from her late husband to her said children." Strike out from the word "mother," in the 9th line, to the end of the bill.

The bill, entitled, An act to enable George William West, of Baltimore county, to sell and dispose of the real estate of the late reverend William West, and for other purposes therein mentioned, was read the second time and passed with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed. In the 4th line, 3d page, after the word "said," insert "George."

The bill, entitled, An act respecting the trustees of the new church in the city of Annapolis, was read the second time by especial order and passed.

Which bills were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk of the senate.

The bill, entitled, An act to extend the several streets in Baltimore-town therein mentioned, was read the second time and passed.

And the bill, entitled, An act for building a new gaol in Chester-town, Kent county, was read the second time by especial order and passed with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. First page, 2d line from the bottom, strike out the word "August," and insert "levy." 2d page, 2d line, strike out the words "four per cent. for collection," and insert in their room, "the same commission for collecting that he receives for collecting the other county levy." 2d page, 3d line from the bottom, after the word "shall," insert "refuse to act." 3d line from the bottom, after the word "remove," insert "out of the county."

Which bills were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk of the senate.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the resolution repealing the resolution of last session authorising the issuing of certificates to persons entitled, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, November 22, 1792: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
"By the house of delegates, December 7, 1792: Read the second time and assented to.

"By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

And the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 7, 1792.

RESOLVED, That the attorney-general be and he is hereby directed to discontinue the action of trespass and ejectment, now depending in the general court of the eastern shore, and which was instituted on behalf of the state against George Tull, for the recovery of a tract of land called Tower Hill, as confiscated property formerly belonging to Adam Carlisle, a British subject; provided, that the state