The clerk of the house of delegates delivers to the clerk of the senate the following message, and the resolution therein mentioned.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 29, 1796.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE return you the resolution in favour of Samuel Patterson Wallace, and hope you will reconsider it. The incompetency of the evidence exhibited to you, was, we presume, the reason of your rejecting it. As there will be other evidence brought forward to support his claim, we hope you will, upon reconsideration, assent to it.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers to the clerk of the senate the following message, together with the bill and amendments therein mentioned.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 29, 1796.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE have dissented from your first amendment to the bill, entitled, An act relating to negroes, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and hope that upon reconsideration you will pass the bill without insisting upon the same. We cannot agree to this amendment, because it goes to the competency of witnesses born of free ancestors, and entitled to the privileges of citizens. We think that the credibility of such persons ought always to rest with the jury of their country.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.
