BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 19, 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

We have negatived the bill, entitled, An act to repeal the parts of the constitution therein mentioned. If the senate will proceed, agreeably to the request contained in our message of this morning, we will carry the proposition made in that message into full effect.

We return the bill, entitled, An act to confirm an act passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled, An act to alter, abolish and repeal, such parts of the second, third, fourteenth and forty-second sections of the constitution and form of government, as relate to the judges, time, place and manner, of holding the several elections therein specified, and the bill to regulate elections, in hopes that the senate, upon reconsideration, will pass the same; should they, however, refuse to reconsider, we must let the subject sleep in silence until awakened by our constituents.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the house of delegates returns the bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act directing the time, places and manner, of holding elections for representatives of this state in the congress of the United States, and for appointing electors on the part of this state for choosing a president and vice-president of the United States, and for the regulation of the said elections, and also to repeal the acts of assembly therein mentioned, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, January 19, 1799: Read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

Which was ordered to be engrossed.

The clerk of the house of delegates returns the bill, entitled, An act to alter, abolish and repeal, such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as are therein mentioned, thus endorsed; "By the house of delegates, January 19, 1799: Read the first and second time by especial order and will not pass.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk."

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers to the clerk of the senate the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 20, 1799.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay the sum of three thousand dollars to the mayor of the city of Baltimore, to be by him applied to the completing and furnishing the hospital in Baltimore county for the relief of indigent sick persons, and the reception and care of lunatics, provided that the said mayor shall first give bond, with security, for the due and faithful application of the said sum of money to the purpose aforesaid, and provided also, that the said treasurer shall first be assured and satisfied, that the inhabitants of Baltimore county have also contributed and secured to be paid to the mayor aforesaid, an equal sum of money towards the completing and finishing the said hospital.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 19, 1799.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay annually, on the first day of May in each year, to the visitors and directors of the grammar school in Elizabeth-town, in Washington county, the sum of two hundred dollars, the same to be paid out of any unappropriated money in said treasury, and applied by said directors and visitors to the purposes and for the use of said school; provided that no money shall be paid in any year by the said treasurer, unless he shall be satisfied that there are at least twelve scholars in said school who are studying the learned languages.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.
