And also the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 22, 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

THE office of register of wills for Worcester county being vacant, by the death of Levin Handy, and the executive, in the recess of the session, having appointed James Bowdoin Robins to that office, we propose to proceed immediately to the election of a person to the office of register of wills for Worcester county. We have appointed Mr. M'Pherson and Mr. Turner, to join such persons as may be appointed by your house, to examine the ballots. James Bowdoin Robins is put in nomination by this house.

By order, W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which said bill and message were severally read and the bill ordered to lie on the table.

The following message was prepared, read, agreed to, and, with the bill, entitled, An act to authorize and empower the levy court of Montgomery county to assess and levy annually a sum of money for the support of Ruth Glaze, was sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

BY THE SENATE, NOVEMBER 22, 1799.

GENTLEMEN,

WE are ready to proceed immediately to the election of a register of wills for Worcester county, as proposed by you. No person is put in nomination for that office by the senate in addition to Mr. James Bowdoin Robins. Robert Milligan and William Hindman, Esquires, are appointed to join the gentlemen named in your message in the examination of the ballots.

By order, A. VAN-HORN, clk.

The senate then proceeded to the election of a person to be commissioned as register of wills for Worcester county; the ballot box being prepared, the ballots were deposited therein, sealed up, and delivered to the committee of the senate appointed to meet the committee of the house of delegates, who retired to the conference room, and after the examination of the ballots returned and reported, that James Bowdoin Robins was unanimously elected.

Whereupon it is declared in the senate, that James Bowdoin Robins be recommended by the senate to be commissioned by the governor as register of wills for Worcester county.

The bill, entitled, An act to revive and aid the proceedings of the orphans court of Calvert county, was read the second time and will pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
