BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 23. 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

THE executive having made sundry communications to the legislature during this session, which embrace subjects deeply interesting to the state, we propose a committee of conference with your house, to deliberate on the same. The subjects which we particularly allude to are the claim of Henry Harford against this state, the situation of our bank stock in England, and the communications from the governor of Pennsylvania, relative to the Susquehanna river navigation, and the communication between the waters of the Chesapeake and Delaware. In order to investigate these important subjects, we have appointed Mr. Key, Mr. Taney, Mr. Duckett, Mr. J. Thomas, Mr. Tilghman and Mr. Barroll, to meet any gentlemen of your house that you may nominate if you approve of the conference.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.
