The following message was prepared, read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

BY THE SENATE, JANUARY 3, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have finished the business before us, and as we shall not have a senate after to-day, we propose to sign and seal the laws this evening at five o'clock, which we hope will meet your concurrence.

By order,

A. VAN-HORN, clk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers to the clerk of the senate the following message, and bill therein mentioned.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 3, 1800.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE cannot agree to the last amendment proposed by you to the bill, entitled, An act to aid and revive the proceedings of the court of appeals. We do not believe that the mode pointed out would tend to better the security given on the removal of suits, and therefore hope you will recede from the amendment, and pass the bill.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The following message, and resolutions therein mentioned.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 3, 1800.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE concur with you in part as to the propriety of the means to meet the appropriations of government, suggested in your message on the resolution respecting the treasurer of the western shore, and herewith send you a resolution conformable to the same, to which we request your concurrence. We also return for your further consideration the said resolution respecting the treasurer of the western shore, to which we now hope you will assent.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 3, 1800.

RESOLVED, That the payment of the five months pay due the officers and soldiers, the sum due for services on board the barges, the redemption of the emissions of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and the payment of certificates issued by this state, amounting in the whole to nine thousand two hundred and seventy-six pounds nine shillings and eleven-pence, be and the same are hereby suspended until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and one.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which messages were severally read, and the resolution next before mentioned read the first and second time by especial order and dissented from.

The question was then put, That the senate do reconsider their last amendment to the bill, entitled, An act to aid and revive the proceedings of the court of appeals? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
