

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 9, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

WE accede to your amendment, and are ready to proceed immediately to the election of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States. We have proposed no person in addition to those mentioned by your house. We have appointed James Hollyday and Philip Thomas, Esquires, to join in the examination of the ballots.

By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk.

The senate then proceeded to the election of a senator from the eastern shore to represent this state in the senate of the United States, in the place of James Lloyd, Esquire, resigned; the ballot box being prepared, the ballots deposited therein, sealed up, and delivered to the committee of the senate appointed to join the committee of the house of delegates, they retired to the conference room, and after examining the ballots returned and reported, that William Hindman, Esquire, had forty-nine votes, and Richard Tilghman Earle, Esquire, had forty votes.

Whereupon it is declared in the senate, that William Hindman, Esquire, is duly elected a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States for the remainder of the term for which James Lloyd, Esquire, was elected.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolution:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 9, 1800.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be authorized and directed to pay unto William Kilty, out of any unappropriated monies that may be in the treasury, four thousand dollars, after the first day of January next, in full for his services in compiling his edition of the laws of Maryland.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and assented to.

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
