

The bill to regulate constables fees in the several counties therein mentioned, was read the second time by especial order and will not pass.

The bill authorizing and empowering the register of wills of Anne-Arundel county to transmit to the office of register of wills of Worcester county the will of Thomas Powell, of Worcester, deceased, was read the second time and will pass.

William Hindman, Esquire, has leave of absence.

The senate adjourns till Monday morning 10 o'clock.

M O N D A Y, December 15, 1800.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except John Grahame, Uriah Forrest and William Hindman, Esquires, who had leave of absence. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

The bill to make valid a deed of conveyance from Moses Jacques, of New-Jersey, to Thomas Purnell, of Walton, of Worcester county, the bill respecting idiots, lunatics and persons non compos mentis, the amendments thereto, the bill for incorporating the methodist episcopal churches, known by the name of The Light-street and Old-town Methodist Churches, in the City of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, the further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish pilots, and to regulate their fees, the bill for the improvement of the public roads in Kent county, the amendments thereto, the additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the opening of Second-street, in the city of Baltimore, the bill authorizing and empowering the register of wills of Anne-Arundel county to transmit to the office of register of wills of Worcester county the will of Thomas Powell, of Worcester, deceased, and the resolution in favour of Robert Courtenay, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The supplement to an act, entitled, An act to regulate elections, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. Strike out from the word "have" in the sixth line of the first page to the word "line" in the eleventh line of same page, and insert "not sufficiently designated the." Strike out from the word "five" in the twelfth line of the same page to the word "for" in the sixteenth line of same page. Strike out from the word "that" in the first line of the second page to the end of the bill, and insert "the division line between districts number four and number five, in Washington county, shall be closed and completed by a line drawn due north from the head of the Green Spring furnace run to intersect the Pennsylvania line, and that the division hereby ascertained shall be of the same avail, and have in all respects the same effect, as if the same had been particularly designated in the return of the commissioners appointed under the act to which this is a supplement."

The bill for opening a road leading from the town of Bladensburg, in Prince-George's county, to the city of Washington, until it intersects the present road at or near the district line of Columbia, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed. At the end of the thirteenth line of the second page insert, "and provided also, that the said road shall not be opened through the lands of any minor or minors without the consent of his, her or their guardian or guardians."

The bill for the relief of Henry Casey, of the city of Baltimore, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill for the relief of Hugh Ferguson, of Kent county, was read the second time and will pass.

The further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish and regulate a market at Bridge-town, in Kent county, and for other purposes, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill for the benefit of Michael Fenwick, of Saint-Mary's county, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill to authorize the laying out a public road from the ford on the Little Falls of Gunpowder, near a mill known by the name of the Dutch Mill, to intersect the York road near Josiah Hitchcock's old blacksmith's shop, in Harford county, was read the second time and will pass.

The president communicates to the senate a petition from George W. Purnell, Elisha Purnell, Littleton R. Purnell, Henrietta Purnell and George Purnell, praying that an act may pass to confirm the title of the trustees appointed by the testament and last will of John Purnell, late of Worcester county, deceased, to certain lands therein devised to them; which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

On a second reading of the memorial of the society of free-masons within the state of Maryland, ORDERED, That the memorialists have leave to withdraw their memorial.

On motion, David D'Meche, Esquire, delivers to the president a bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the trustees of the Baltimore and Harford academy; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate elections, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 11, 1800: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

"By the house of delegates, December 15, 1800: Read the second time and will pass.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

A bill,