The bill, entitled, An act relating to the public roads in the several counties therein mentioned, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 14, 1801.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE have not agreed to the amendment proposed by you to the bill, entitled, An act relating to the public roads in the several counties therein mentioned, and send the same back for your reconsideration, in expectation that you will recede from the same. We consider the retention of the provision which appears objectionable to your body, to be extremely essential to effectuate one of the great objects contemplated in the bill, namely the convenience of the citizens who are to experience the operation of it. However important it may be to the community
