Mr. Houston, from the committee, delivers to the president the following message: :

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 17, 1801.

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

WE have declined to recede from the amendments proposed by us to the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the Roman catholic congregation worshipping at Saint-Joseph's church, in Saint-Mary's county. In your message on that subject you suggest, that the object of the petitioners will be defeated by the amendments if adopted; but we cannot suppose so. If, as we believe, the petitioners wish for nothing more than power sufficient to enable them to manage their temporal concerns, and thereby to promote the interests of religion, we apprehend that the bill, as amended, if passed into a law, will give them all that power, and under that impression have determined to adhere to the amendments.

By order,

J. B. DUCKETT, clk.
