Mr. Houston, from the committee, delivers to the president the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of Stephen West, of Prince-George's county, praying that a bill, entitled, An act to authorize the levy court of Anne-Arundel county to open the road therein mentioned, may be rejected by the senate, beg leave to report, that they have taken the same into consideration and are of opinion that the documents exhibited to them are not sufficient to enable them to ascertain whether the legislature ought to interfere, now especially, as they have some doubts whether the road contemplated to be opened by the said bill is not already a public one; they therefore beg leave to suggest the propriety of rejecting the bill, by which means all the parties will have an opportunity of producing, at a future session of the legislature, such testimony as they may think necessary to establish their several pretensions.

Which was read the first and second time and concurred with.
