BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 26, 1801.

Whereas by a resolution of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, William Pinkney, William Cooke and Philip Barton Key, Esquires, were appointed on behalf of this state to settle and adjust the western and southern boundaries between this state and the commonwealth of Virginia: And whereas at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, William Cooke signified to the general assembly that he could not attend the execution of the above powers, and that William Pinkney was on business out of this state, and Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Jeremiah Townley Chase, Esquires, were appointed with Philip Barton Key, to carry the foregoing resolution into effect: And whereas the said resolution hath not yet been carried into effect, and Philip Barton Key hath removed out of this state, and Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Jeremiah Townley Chase, have signified to this general assembly that they cannot attend to the execution of the above powers; therefore, RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorized and required to appoint three proper persons as commissioners on the part of this state, to meet such commissioners as may be appointed for the same purpose by the commonwealth of Virginia, to settle and adjust, by mutual compact between the two governments, the western and southern lines of this state, and the dividing lines and boundaries between this state and the said commonwealth; and also to settle and adjust as aforesaid any claim of this state, or the said commonwealth, to territory within the limits of the other; and the said commissioners, so to be appointed, are hereby required to report their proceedings in virtue of their said appointment and authority to the general assembly of this state, at their next session after the same shall have been concluded, for confirmation.

RESOLVED, That the governor of this state be requested to transmit, without delay, to the governor of Virginia, a copy of the foregoing resolve, in order to its being laid before the legislature of that commonwealth and at the same time to communicate the wish of this general assembly that a similar resolution may be passed by the general assembly of Virginia, with a clause specifying the time and place when and where the commissioners appointed on the part of said commonwealth, shall meet those appointed on the part of this state.

RESOLVED, That in case of the death, resignation or disqualification, of any of the said commissioners, the governor and council for the time being may and they are hereby authorized and required to supply any vacancy or vacancies so happening, by the appointment of one or more, (as the case may require,) suitable characters or characters to discharge the duties aforesaid.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council for the time being be and they are hereby authorized and required to make such compensation to the said commissioners so as aforesaid to be appointed, when they shall be discharged.
