The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 7, 1802.

Whereas it is represented to this general assembly, that a certain mulatto slave, called and known by the name of Peter White, who had for a considerable time been a general disturber of the peace and security of the good citizens of Queen-Anne’s and other counties of this state, and whose outrages had excited such general terror as to induce the executive of this state to offer a considerable reward for apprehending him, was arrested in Caroline county, and at October term, eighteen hundred and one, was convicted in Caroline county court of a capital crime, for which he was afterwards executed pursuant to his sentence: And whereas the sum of seventy-five pounds current money, the valuation of the said slave, has been levied on Caroline county for the use of a certain Henry Carlton, of the state of Georgia, whose property he was at the time of his conviction there.
