

M. Kim, junior, James John Wilkinson, James Armstrong and James G. Wood, are put in nomination by this house. Mr. Stephen and Mr. T. Bayly are appointed by the house of delegates to join the gentlemen to be appointed by you in the examination of the ballots; and to regulate the manner of said election, we have adopted the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the two directors to be appointed on the part of this state in the Union bank of Maryland, be elected by ballot, and the two persons having a majority of the ballots of all the attending members of both houses of the legislature be declared duly elected directors on the part of this state in the Union bank of Maryland.

By order,

J. B. DUCKETT, clk.

Which was read.

The resolution in favour of Christopher Johnson was read the second time and assented to.

The following resolution being propounded to the senate, was read the first and second time by especial order, and the question put, Will the senate assent thereto?

Whereas a bill passed the house of delegates on the tenth of January, eighteen hundred and five, and is now under consideration of the senate, entitled; An act for the encouragement of learning in this state, and for other purposes therein mentioned: And whereas by the provisions of said bill the sum of 16,400 dollars is appropriated amongst the several counties of this state for the promotion of literature: And whereas by the 11th section of the constitution and form of government of this state, amongst other things, it is provided, "that every bill assessing, levying or applying, taxes or supplies for the support of government or the current expences of the state, or appropriating money in the treasury, shall be deemed a money bill:" And whereas by the 22d section of the constitution aforesaid, it is further provided, that "the senate may originate any other except money bills, to which their assent or dissent only shall be given;" therefore, RESOLVED, That the said bill, entitled; An act for the encouragement of learning in this state, and for other purposes therein mentioned, is a money bill within the true intent and meaning of the constitution and form of government of this state, and cannot be amended by the senate.

The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

A F F I R M A T I V E.

Mr. Brown, Mr. Christie, Mr. Duckett, Mr. Houston, Mr. T. Johnson Mr. M'Culloch, Mr. Ringgold, Mr. Whitely. 8.

N E G A T I V E.

Mr. Harwood, president, Mr. J. Johnson, Mr. Partridge, Mr. Thomas. 4.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning in this state, and for other purposes therein mentioned, was read the second time and will not pass.

On motion, ORDERED, That Mr. Christie, Mr. J. Johnson and Mr. Houston, be a committee to prepare a message to the house of delegates on the subject of the said bill.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the bill, entitled, An act to authorise the vestry of St. Paul's parish, in Baltimore county, to draw a lottery within the city of Baltimore, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JANUARY 17, 1805.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE have considered the amendments proposed by you to the bill to authorise the drawing of a lottery in the city of Baltimore for the purpose therein mentioned. We have concurred with the first amendment, but for reasons satisfactory to us have dissented from the second. We have come to this determination because the sum contemplated to be raised by the petition amounts to twelve thousand dollars, exclusive of all expences or incidental charges attending the operations of the lottery; whereas by the bill, as amended, only the gross sum of twelve thousand dollars will be authorised to be raised. The parish of St. Paul's have incurred debts to the amount of about four thousand dollars, which are to be satisfied out of the funds contemplated to be raised by
