By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following message, with the resolutions to which it relates.

By THE HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 21, 1805.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE return you the resolutions which were passed by us in favour of James Boarman and William Gardiner, of Charles county, under an expectation that, on a reconsideration of them, which we solicit, you will assent to the same. As the funds of the state are amply sufficient, we conceive, to justify an indulgence to her debtors, where the debt is well secured, we think the unfortunate situation of those persons who are thus involved by their friendship in becoming securities for others, will recommend them to a further continuance of that lenity from the state by which they have been saved heretofore from entire ruin; we hope therefore that the senate will grant the indulgence contemplated in the resolutions respectively.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The senate adjourns until Monday morning 9 o'clock.

M O N D A Y, December 23, 1805.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except Mr. Partridge and Mr. T. Johnson. The proceedings of Saturday were read. Mr. Brown appeared in the senate.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road to lead from the cross roads near Richard Caton's limekiln, in Baltimore county, nearly in the direction of Jones's Falls, to the city of Baltimore, passed by that house December 21, 1805; a bill, entitled, An act to appoint Elizabeth Crabb and Richard Orme, of Montgomery county, trustees for locating and transferring certain lands lying in Montgomery county, part of the real estate of the late Jeremiah Crabb, deceased, and a bill, entitled, An act to alter and change the name of William Santee, of Har-
