

The bill, entitled, An act relative to the collection of the debts due to this state, was read the second time and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road to lead from the cross roads near Richard Caton's limekiln, in Baltimore county, nearly in the direction of Jones's Falls, to the city of Baltimore, passed by that house January 22, 1806, with an amendment thereto; which amendment was read the first and second time, concurred with, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

On motion, the question was put, Will the senate reconsider the bill, entitled, An act for draining part of a branch called Old-town Branch, lying in the upper part of Caroline county? Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read, the question was put, Shall this bill pass? Resolved in the affirmative, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act to pay the civil list, and other expences of civil government, and a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the elders and trustees of the German evangelical reformed church in Baltimore county to draw a lottery in the city of Baltimore, severally passed by that house January 23, 1806; which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill, entitled, An act to confirm certain acts of magistrates who hold, or have held, offices under the general government, was read the second time by especial order and will pass with the proposed amendment. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Amendment proposed. Strike out from the word "States?" in the 9th line to the end of the bill, and insert "shall have the same effect and operation as if such magistrate had not been an officer under the general government."

The bill, entitled, An act appointing commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Chester-town, in Kent county, and for other purposes, was read the second time by especial order and will pass with the proposed amendments. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Amendments proposed. 1. After the word "hereafter" in the 12th line of the 3d page insert the word "to." 2. At the end of the 13th page insert "And, whereas Samuel Chew, Esquire, has heretofore left open a part of a lot lying on Club lane in the said town, in consideration of being permitted to enclose a part of one of the streets, which arrangement has been found advantageous to the inhabitants, Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to make such exchange or contract with the said Samuel Chew, or others having an interest in the lots in question, as they may think most to the public convenience, and any deed or deeds executed for that purpose by the said commissioners and the said Samuel Chew, or others having an interest as aforesaid, and recorded according to law, shall enure to the benefit of the commissioners of Chester-town, and the said Samuel Chew and others respectively."

The resolution in favour of Edward Roberts was read the second time by especial order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

BY THE S E N A T E, January 23, 1806.

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

THE session having been protracted to an unusual length, and having very little business before us: we take the liberty again to call your attention to an adjournment. This we are induced to do from a full conviction that it is our duty to gratify the expectations and wishes of the people in accomplishing the legislative objects of the session with economy and every possible dispatch.

Believing that by our united efforts the session may be brought to a close in a short time; we beg that an early day may be fixed on for adjournment.

By order,

T. W. HALL, clk.

The resolution in favour of Martha Hall was read the second time and assented to.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

E R I D A Y, January 24, 1806.

THE senate met: Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The resolution in favour of Martha Hall was sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill, entitled, An act to authorise the elders and trustees of the German evangelical reformed church in Baltimore county to draw a lottery within the city of Baltimore, and the bill, entitled, An act authorising a lottery for raising a sum of money for repairing St. George's church on Deer creek, in Harford county, were severally read the second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favour of John G. Bond, was read the second time, dissented from, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill, entitled, An act to pay the civil list, and other expences of civil government, was read the second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act to reduce into one the several acts of assembly respecting elections, and to regulate said elections, passed by that house January 24,