By the H O U S E of D E L E G A T E S, December 4, 1806.

THE resolutions of the legislature of Tennessee, proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, by which the congress may be permitted to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, having been communicated by the governor of Maryland to this general assembly, and having been maturely deliberated on, RESOLVED, That in the opinion of the general assembly of Maryland it would at this time be inexpedient to adopt the amendment proposed by the state of Tennessee, the period being nearly arrived when the congress of the United States will have full power, without any change of the constitution, to prohibit the importation of slaves, if such a prohibition shall be thought beneficial.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the governor of this state be and he is hereby requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the state of Tennessee.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

By the H O U S E of D E L E G A T E S, December 11, 1806.

RESOLVED, That our senators in the congress of the United States be instructed, and our representatives requested, to take all legal and necessary measures, to use their utmost exertions, as soon as the same may be practicable, to prohibit the importation of Slaves into the United States from the coast of Africa, the West-Indies, or elsewhere.

RESOLVED, That the Governor be and he is hereby requested to transmit copies of the foregoing resolution to our senators and representatives in congress, also to the executives of all the different States in the Union, with a request that the same may be laid before their respective Legislatures for their concurrence.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

By the H O U S E of D E L E G A T E S, December 11, 1806.

RESOLVED, That although the state of Maryland is at all times desirous of co-operating with any other state in an object which may conduce to its advantage, if the same is not detrimental to the interests of the citizens of Maryland, yet, in the opinion of this general assembly, it would at this time be inexpedient for this state to subscribe for shares in the Ohio canal company, in the manner proposed by the legislature of the state of Kentucky; the state of Maryland therefore declines the privilege of subscribing for shares in the Ohio canal company, reserved to this state by the act of the legislature of the state of Kentucky, entitled, An act to amend the act incorporating the Ohio canal company.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the governor be and he is hereby requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the governor of the state of Kentucky.

By order,
