T H U R S D A Y, November 26, 1807.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Glenn, from the committee, delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate the subscribers thereto; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table. The resolution in favour of the justices of the levy court of Baltimore county was read the second time by especial order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 25, 1807.

RESOLVED, That in order to relieve Richard Choate, supervisor of the turnpike roads in Baltimore county, from the embarrassments in which he is thrown by the accidental destruction, by fire, of his receipts and documents for the expenditure of the money confided to his charge during the year last passed, by virtue of his office, the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to settle the account of the said Richard Choate, of the monies by him expended and received as aforesaid, without requiring the actual production of the said receipts and documents, upon being satisfied that the credits claimed are just and proper, and arose out of the fair discharge of the duties of the said supervisor.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, November 27, 1807.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. On motion, the question was put, Will the senate proceed to the second reading of the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act to establish a bank, and incorporate a company, under the name of The Farmers Bank of Maryland, and for other purposes? Determined in the negative.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed by that house November 26, 1807; and the following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 27, 1807.

Whereas the auditor-general was directed, by a resolution passed at the last session of the general assembly, to examine and report to the present general assembly what sum of money, if any, is due to William Amos, senior, of Harford county, on account of a claim in behalf of the state, at the instance of the late intendant, to settle the lines of a tract of land lying in Harford county, called The Grove, whereby the state has been materially benefited: And whereas the auditor-general has reported favourable, the petitioner having produced sufficient vouchers to substantiate his claim aforesaid to the satisfaction of the auditor, and your committee being of opinion that the claim of the petitioner is reasonable; therefore RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay unto William Amos, senior, of Harford county, or order, the sum of one hundred and fourteen pounds seventeen shillings and ten-pence halfpenny, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion, ORDERED, That the resolution in favour of William Amos, senior, be referred to a special committee.

ORDERED, That Mr. Partridge, Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Somervell, be the said committee.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
