The clerk of the house of delegates returns the bill, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of Britannia Marshall, of Dorchester county; and the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 28, 1807.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

THE bill which originated in our house, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of Britannia Marshall, and Thomas Marshall her husband, has been returned, and we are sorry to find that it has not met with the concurrence of the senate. The peculiar situation of the person applying for the aid of the legislature, has induced us to return the bill for the reconsideration of your body, with a hope that upon further reflection it will meet with the concurrence of the senate.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act to lay out a certain road in Harford county, a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Margaretta Chalmers, severally passed by that house November 30, 1807. The following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 30, 1807.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Monica Greenwell, administratrix of Robert Manning, or to her order, the sum of one hundred and fifty-four pounds four shillings and ten-pence halfpenny current money, it being the amount of the deficiency in the land purchased by the said Robert Manning of this state.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

And the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 30, 1807.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE propose, with the concurrence of your house, to proceed on Thursday next to the election of two directors on the part of this state in the Union Bank of Maryland; and to regulate said election we have adopted the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the two directors to be appointed on the part of this state in the Union Bank of Maryland be elected by ballot, and the two persons having a majority of the ballots of all the attending members of both
