

T U E S D A Y, December 8, 1807.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Lowrey, who is indisposed. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. M'Eldey appeared in the senate. Mr. Leonard Covington appeared in the senate, and after taking the oaths required by the constitution and form of government, and subscribing a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion, and taking the oath for the support of the government of the United States, took his seat.

The bill, entitled, An act to extend Centre-street, in the northern precincts of the city of Baltimore, and to build a bridge therein across Jones's Falls, was read the second time, passed, and with the bill, entitled, An act authorising Benjamin Kay, late sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, to complete his collection, and the bill, entitled, An act to make valid the will of Arthur M'Dade, late of Cæcil county, deceased, sent to the house for delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 7, 1807.

RESOLVED, That the chancellor be and he is hereby authorised and empowered, for and on behalf of this state, to convey unto Samuel Chase and Jeremiah Townley Chase, as tenants in common, in fee, two undivided third parts of all that property on Whetstone Point, in Baltimore county, late the property of the Principia company, purchased by Samuel Chase, Jeremiah Townley Chase and Luther Martin, from the commissioners who were appointed for the preservation and sale of confiscated British property, according to the description contained in the certificates thereof, now remaining in the land-office for the western shore; the said property being described by lot No. 10, lot No. 11 and lot No. 12.

By order, J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the house of delegates returns the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Gwinn, of Frederick county, and the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 7, 1807.

Gentlemen,

WE have received the bill, which originated in this house, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Gwinn, of Frederick county, with certain amendments. The amendments proposed will wholly defeat the object wished for by the person applying for relief, which this house formerly thought, and still are of opinion, ought to be extended. We therefore have returned the bill for the reconsideration of the senate, with a hope that it may be passed without the amendments proposed.

By order, X

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act for founding a medical college in the city or precincts of Baltimore for the instruction of students in the different branches of medicine, a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the drawing of a lottery within the city of Baltimore for the purpose therein mentioned, a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of the joined evangelic lutheran and evangelic presbyterian congregation of Saint-Paul's church, in Washington county, a bill, entitled, An act authorising a lottery for raising a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, severally passed by that house December 8, 1807; which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to prevent the going at large of swine in the village of Hillsborough, in Caroline county, and the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of James West, an insolvent debtor, were severally read the second time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the establishment of a school in Caroline county, was read the second time, passed with the proposed amendments, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Amendments proposed. 1. Strike out the words "which has" in the 6th line of the bill and insert "whom have". 2. After the word "apprentice" in the 11th line of the bill insert "agreeable to the provisions contained in an act for the better regulation of apprentices." 3. At the end of the bill add "And be it enacted, That every indenture taken by the trustees aforesaid, shall, within thirty days after the execution of the same, be recorded among the records of the orphans court of Caroline county, and the sum of three shillings shall be paid by the master or mistress of said apprentice therefor."

The bill, entitled, An act to erect a new bridge over Great Choptank river, in Caroline county, was read the second time, passed with the proposed amendment, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Amendment proposed. Strike out the word "said" in the 5th line from the bottom of the 2d page and insert "same."

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
