

Amendments proposed. 1. Strike out from the word "states" in the 12th line of the 8th page to the end of the page. 2. After the word "medicine" in the 12th line of the 14th page insert "and." 3. Strike out the words "and botany" in the 12th line of the 14th page. 4. After the word "physic" in the 12th line of the 14th page insert "provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the said regents from conferring at any time the honorary degrees before mentioned, or from admitting at any time to the degree of doctor of medicine, such persons as may be appointed professors in the college, on their performing such exercises and duties as may be prescribed by their ordinances."

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, December 18, 1807.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. On motion, the question was put, Will the senate reconsider the resolution in favour of Elisha Hopkins? Resolved in the affirmative.

The resolution being read, the question was put, Will the senate assent thereto? Determined in the negative, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favour of John Maloy, and the resolution in favour of Catherine Johnson, were severally read the second time, dissented from, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favour of Thomas Meredith, was read the second time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill, entitled, An act for founding a medical college in the city or precincts of Baltimore for the instruction of students in the different branches of medicine, the resolution in favour of John Barnes, clerk to Charles county court, with the message relative thereto, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The following message was read and agreed to.

By the S E N A T E, December 18, 1807.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

AT this eventful crisis, when a most flagrant outrage upon the dignity and independence of our country, and a denial of our dearest and most inestimable privileges, threaten to commit our peace with the British nation, we conceive that sound policy and national justice require, that the sentiments and feelings of the people of the state of Maryland should be communicated to the executive of the United States, through the medium of their legislature; we therefore propose, with the concurrence of your honourable body, to appoint a joint committee of both branches of the legislature to frame an address to the President of the United States, appropriate to the present occasion, and have nominated Mr. Somervell, Mr. Partridge and Mr. Glenn, to join such gentlemen as may be appointed by your house for that purpose.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The bill, entitled, An act to prevent swine from going at large in the town of Belle-Air, in Harford county, the bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to lay out and make a public road from the Black House to the Pennsylvania line, in Harford county, were severally read the second time and will pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

S A T U R D A Y, December 19, 1807.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Gibson and Mr. Purnell. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Williams asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Gibson and Mr. Purnell.

The bill, entitled, An act to prevent swine from going at large in the town of Belle-Air, in Harford county, the bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to lay out and make a public road from the Black House to the Pennsylvania line in Harford county, and the message relative to an address by the legislature of this state to the president of the United States, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act to open and extend a road leading from Whittingham's bridge, at Princess-Anne-town, in Somerset county, to the plantation of George Pollitt, deceased, until it intersects the road leading from Salisbury to Stevens's ferry at the plantation of Joshua Morris, the bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for erecting a village at Choptank Bridge, in Caroline county, and for other purposes therein mentioned, the bill, entitled, An act to lay out, straighten and confirm, a certain road in Harford county, and the bill, entitled, An act to extend further the powers of the levy court of Allegany county relative to roads in said county, and for other purposes, were severally read the second time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion, the question was put, Will the senate recede from their two last amendments to the bill, entitled, An act authorising Benjamin Ray, late sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, to complete his collection? Determined in the negative.