

The bill, entitled, An act for the relief of James Mulvany, of Washington county, was read the second time by especial order and will pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, December 2, 1808.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill, entitled, An act to reduce the per diem of the judges and clerks of elections in Allegany county; the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the Union Manufacturing Company of Maryland, the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of James Mulvany, of Washington county, the bill, entitled, An act authorising Nathaniel Rochester, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, to complete his collection, the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Connerly, of Anne-Arundel county, and the message relative to the appointment of directors, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Mr. Glenn, from the committee, delivers the bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 2, 1808.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE have received your message, proposing to go immediately into the election of directors for the different banks therein mentioned, and do concur therewith. This house has nominated, in addition to those mentioned in your message, Bennett Wheeler for the Branch of the Farmers Bank at Easton. Mr. Seth and Mr. Young are appointed by this house to join the gentlemen named by your house to count the ballots.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The senate then proceeded to the election, on the part of the state, of two directors in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, two in the branch of said bank at Easton, two in the Union Bank of Maryland, two in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, and one in the Hagar's-town Bank; the ballot box being prepared, and the ballots deposited therein, the committee appointed by the senate to join the committee appointed by the house of delegates retired to the conference room, and after sometime returned and reported, that John S. Belt had sixty-three votes, William Kilty sixty-two votes, and Burton Whetcroft one vote, as directors in the Farmers Bank of Maryland; that David Kerr, junior, had sixty-four votes, John Kennard forty-four votes, Bennett Wheeler forty votes, David Kerr one vote, and David Kerr, senior, one vote, as directors in the Branch Bank at Easton; that Samuel Wright had sixty-six votes, Thomas Dickson sixty-one votes, George F. Warfield one vote, and George Price one vote, as directors in the Union Bank of Maryland; that Tobias E. Stansbury had sixty-two votes, Peter Little sixty votes, and Robert Benson one vote, as directors in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore; that Henry Lewis had fifty-nine votes, Robert Hart one vote, and Doctor Downey one vote, as directors in the Hagar's-town Bank.

Whereupon it appearing that John S. Belt, William Kilty, David Kerr, junior, John Kennard, Samuel Wright, Thomas Dickson, Tobias E. Stansbury, Peter Little and Henry Lewis, had a majority of the votes of all the attending members of both branches of the legislature, it is declared in the senate, that John S. Belt and William Kilty in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, David Kerr, junior, and John Kennard in the Branch Bank at Easton, Samuel Wright and Thomas Dickson in the Union Bank of Maryland, Tobias E. Stansbury and Peter Little in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, and Henry Lewis in the Hagar's-town Bank, are duly elected directors on the part of the state for and during the term prescribed by law.

Mr. Thomas B. Dorsey, from the committee appointed on the resolutions disapproving of the embargo, delivers the following message:

By the SENATE, December 2, 1808.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

AFTER the most mature deliberation, the senate have negatived your resolutions respecting the embargo imposed by a late act of congress, and conceive that a duty they owe themselves, and a due respect for your honourable body, require that they should assign some of the reasons which have influenced them in their decision on this important subject.

They apprehend, that so far as the late election of delegates to the general assembly can be deemed an expression of the public will of the people of this state on the policy of the embargo, it is in direct hostility with the resolutions, which appear to be predicated upon it, in as much as the aggregate number of votes given in the several counties of the state to those candidates who were viewed as the advocates of that measure, exceed more than four thousand the number of votes given to its opponents; and by the returns of representatives to congress which may, with more propriety, be said to manifest the opinion of the people of Maryland, it appears that six of the nine representatives were chosen as the friends of the embargo, and that the votes given throughout the state to candidates of such political opinions, exceeded nearly five thousand the number of votes given to those of opposite political sentiments. But the senate conceive, that since the more recent election of electors of
