

The amendments to the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the Union Manufacturing Company of Maryland, were severally read the second time and assented to, except the eighth, which was dissented from.

The following message was read and agreed to.

By the S E N A T E, December 8, 1808.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have agreed to all your amendments to the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the Union Manufacturing Company of Maryland, except the eighth, from which we have dissented, and hereby request that you will consent to recede therefrom. We apprehend that this amendment, upon a reconsideration of it by the house of delegates, will appear to them, as it does to the senate, unnecessary, and productive of no good effect, but if adhered to will eventuate in the dissolution of this highly laudable association.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
