

The bill, entitled, An act to open a road in Washington county, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed. After the word "road" in the 4th line of the 1st page insert "not exceeding thirty feet in width."

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate a company, under the name of The Elkton Bank of Maryland, passed by that house November 29, 1810. The following resolution and message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 29, 1810.

Whereas it appears to this general assembly, that Mountjoy Bayly, a captain in the late revolutionary war, and who served to its termination, did not receive the commutation money of five years pay in lieu of the half pay for life promised to the officers and soldiers who continued in service to the end of the war; therefore, RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay to the said Mountjoy Bayly five years full pay as a captain, free from interest, as a full compensation for his services during the late revolutionary war.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, November 29, 1810.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE have received your message on the subject of your dissent to the resolution passed this house in favour of Mountjoy Bayly, an old revolutionary officer, and have originated and passed another resolution in his favour, in conformity to your message, and hope it will meet with your concurrence.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which were severally read the first time and the bill and resolution ordered to lie on the table.
