By the SENATE, December 12, 1810.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have received your message of yesterday proposing to proceed to the election of two directors for the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, two others for the Farmers Bank of Maryland, two others for the Branch Bank at Easton, and one other for the Hagar's-town Bank, but owing to other pressing business at that time the senate did not act upon the subject. We are now ready to proceed to the election, no other persons have been put in nomination by the senate in addition to those nominated by your house. We have appointed Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Glenn, to join the gentlemen who may be named by your house, to examine the ballots.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

A memorial from the president and directors of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, praying a law explanatory of their act of incorporation, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Glenn, Mr. Fewwick and Mr. Tabbs, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Glenn from the committee to whom was referred the petition of James Fulton, delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of James Fulton, of the city of Baltimore; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The senate proceeded to the election, on the part of the state, of two directors in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, two in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, at Annapolis, two in the Branch of said bank at Easton, and one in the Hagar's-town Bank; the ballot box being prepared, and the ballots deposited therein, the committee appointed by the senate to join the committee appointed by the house of delegates, retired to the conference room, and after sometime returned and reported, that Tobias E. Stansbury had fifty-three votes, Peter Little fifty-three votes, and George A. Hughes fifteen votes, as directors in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore; that William Kilty had fifty-five votes, and Nicholas Brewer fifty-five votes, as directors in the Farmers Bank of Maryland at Annapolis; that David Kerr, junior, had fifty-six votes, and Jacob Gibson fifty-five votes, as directors in the Branch Bank at Easton; that Henry Lewis had fifty-four votes, and Martin Kershner one vote, as director in the Hagar's-town Bank. Whereupon it appearing that Tobias E. Stansbury, Peter Little, William Kilty, Nicholas Brewer, David Kerr, junior, Jacob Gibson and Henry Lewis, had a majority of the votes of all the attending members of both branches of the legislature, it is declared in the senate, that Tobias E. Stansbury and Peter Little, in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore; William Kilty and Nicholas Brewer, in the Farmers Bank of Maryland at Annapolis; David Kerr, junior, and Jacob Gibson, in the Branch Bank at Easton; and Henry Lewis, in the Hagar's town Bank, are duly elected directors on the part of the state.

Mr. Glenn, from the committee to whom was referred the memorial of the president and directors of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore; which was read the first and second time by especial order and will pass.

The bill, entitled, An act for founding an academy at Hagar's-town, in Washington county, the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Marine Bank of Baltimore, and the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Baltimore, were severally read the second time and will pass.

The bill, entitled, An act to lay out and open the road therein mentioned in Harford county, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed. At the end of the bill add, "And be it enacted, that in case the said commissioners shall lay out the road to Nathan Pyle's mill, that then and in that case they shall view the road from the said mill to the Peach Bottom road, and if they should be of opinion that it can be laid out on better ground than where it now runs, they shall make such alterations of the location of the same as they, or a majority of them, shall conceive necessary, and make return thereof to the clerk of the county with their other proceedings."

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
