

of the constitution and form of government, severally passed by that house December 19, 1810: The following resolution:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 19, 1810.
 RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to account with, and pay unto, John J. Jacob, or his order, five years full pay as a lieutenant in the revolutionary war, without interest, as a commutation of his half pay.

J. BREWER, clk.

By order,
 Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Also returns the bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, with the following message:

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 19, 1810.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

THE bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore, was read the second time in our house on the sixth day of the present month, and the last section but one was stricken out, but by a mere mistake or oversight it was not cancelled as it ought to have been; and it now appears that this bill has been read a second time and endorsed, "will pass," by your house, including the section which was so rejected by us and ought to have been cancelled. We therefore return the bill to you, and hope that you will reconsider it and rectify the mistake in such manner as you may think proper.

J. BREWER, clk.

By order,

Which was read.

The bill, entitled, An act to confirm an act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and nine, entitled, An act to repeal and abolish the forty-fifth article of the constitution and form of government, the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary Randal, of Prince-George's county, the bill, entitled, An act authorising the levy court of Worcester county, to levy a sum of money for the support of William Peacock, of Worcester county, the bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Samuel T. Parker, of Worcester county, the bill, entitled, An act to vest certain powers in the orphans court of Charles county, the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to lay out and open a road in Caroline county, the bill, entitled, An act to confirm to Theodore Mitchell, of Anne-Arundel county, the surname of Swain, and the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Harriet G. Wynkoop, were severally read the second time by especial order and will pass.
