Mr. Randail delivers the following report :

THE Committee to whom was referred the memorial of the proprietors of the Woollen Factory at Lanvale, in Baltimore county, report, That the establishment of a Woollen Factory, by the memorialists in Baltimore county, upon so extensive and liberal a plan, promises many permanent advantages to this state, and is highly deserving of the encouragement of the legislature, and that aid which they have solicited in their memorial; the committee therefore recommend the following resolution :

Resolved, That the treasurer of the Western Shore of this state, be authorised to loan out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, to James Mosher, Robert Carey Long and William Gwynn, proprietors of the woollen factory at Lanvale, in Baltimore county, the sum of dollars, on their delivering to him a bond to the state of Maryland in the penal sum of dollars, to be executed by them, with such security, real or personal, or both, as the governor and council shall approve, conditioned for the payment of the whole sum loaned, within years, from the date of such bond, with legal interest thereon, until the principal sum be paid in semi-annual payments.

All which is submitted.

By order,

S. BRADFORD, Clk.
