

rendered his country in the revolutionary war, and as a relief from the indigence and misery which attend his old age.

By order, LOUIS GASSAWAY, Clk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, the resolution therein contained assented to, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate delivers the further additional supplement to an act entitled, An act for the relief of the poor of Frederick county, endorsed, "will pass;" ordered to be engrossed. Also, the bill for the relief of John McKenzie, of the city of Baltimore, endorsed "will not pass;" also, the bill for the extension of Pratt street, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read, agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed. And the engrossed bills from No 1 to No 138, inclusive, severally endorsed "read and assented to"

On motion by Mr. Street, leave given to bring in a bill entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning in Harford county; Ordered, That Messrs Street, Sanders and H. Hall be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. Howard delivers a petition from sundry inhabitants of Old-Town, Town Creek, and their vicinities in Allegany county, praying that they may be enabled to open a road from Old-Town to the top of the Green ridge; which was read and referred to Messrs. Howard, Blair and Tomlinson.

Mr. Howard delivers a petition from Hanson Briscoe, of Allegany county, praying legislative aid to enable him to erect a fulling mill; which was read and referred to Messrs. Howard, Sanders and Tomlinson.

Mr. Emory delivers the following report:

THE Committee to whom was referred the petition of Richard T. Earle, Lemuel Purnell, Kenedy Harrison, Perry E. Noel, John M'Feeley and Robert Harrison, commissioners of the town of Centreville, beg leave to report, That they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that the prayer of the petitioners ought not to be granted; and that they have leave to withdraw their petition.

By order,

T. MURPHEY, Clk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order and concurred with.

Mr. Ennalls delivers a bill entitled, An act to abolish the privilege now enjoyed by lawyers to collect their fees by execution; which was read.

Mr. Randall delivers a petition from sundry inhabitants of the Western precincts of the city of Baltimore, praying that Pearl-street may be paved; which was read and referred to Messrs. Randall, Brown and Harryman.

Mr. R. Neale delivers a petition from John Tarlton and others, of Saint Mary's county, praying that the bank stock of their father may be divided among them; which was read and referred to Messrs. R. Neale, Piater, and Dorsey. Also a petition from Ann