So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put on the amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Howard, the question was put, That the following be added to the said bill :

“AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the banks aforesaid shall comply with the terms herein as aforesaid provided ; by reason whereof the said charters of the said banks shall be revived as aforesaid ; that then in such case, all the banks in this state without the city of Baltimore now incorporated, and all banks that may be incorporated during this session of the general assembly, whose charters may or shall expire with the session of the general assembly, which shall be in the year 1815, or the end of the session of the next general assembly that shall happen thereafter, shall be and the same are hereby continued until the year 1835, and the end of the next general assembly, that shall be thereafter ?” Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Stevens the question was put, That the following be inserted after the last amendment, to wit :

“AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said banks without the city of Baltimore shall pay to the treasurer of the Western Shore the sum of twelve and an half cents annually on every hundred dollars of the actual capital stock of said banks respectively, to be applied to the use and support of county schools in this state ?”

The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow :
