

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 3, 1812.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return to your honorable body the bill entitled, "An act for the relief of Sarah Ellis and her infant children, of the city of Baltimore," and inform you that we have receded from our amendment of the same.

By order,

JOHN BREWER, Clk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to empower Robert Casey, of the city of Baltimore, to lease the freehold and leasehold estate of Jane B. Hammond and Henry Hammond, infants, of the city of Baltimore. The bill to authorise Stephen H. Ford and Grace Ford, to lease the freehold and leasehold estate of Anne Evans Hammond and William Hammond, infants, of the city of Baltimore, severally endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read and dissented from. Also, the bill for the relief of Jacob Bantz. The bill authorising Elizabeth Luckett, of Frederick county, to remove certain negroes into the state of Maryland; and the bill annulling the marriage of John Henry Hoskyns and Anne his wife, severally endorsed, "will pass;" ordered to be engrossed. Also, the further supplement to the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, endorsed, "will not pass." The resolution in favor of Joseph Wyatt, endorsed, "assented to;" and the resolution relative to chancellor Kilty's report on the English and British Statutes, endorsed, "assented to with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read.

On motion by Mr. Ennalls the following resolution was read:

Resolved, That the treasurerer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby directed to pay to the trustees of a school now building in the town of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, on the first Monday in October annually, or to their order, the sum of _____ dollars as a donation to said school, provided the school shall be completed before the 1st day of October, 1812.

The bill for the relief of William Slater, was read the second time, passed and sent to the senate.

On motion by Mr. Emory the following message was read:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 3, 1812.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We send back to your honorable body the bill entitled, "An act to alter, change and abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government which relate to the time and manner of electing the senate of this state, and the mode of filling vacancies in that body," in the expectation that you now see the necessity, and will pass it upon a re-consideration of the same. And on motion by Mr. R. Neale the question was put, That the words "in the expectation that you now see the necessity, and will pass it upon a re-consideration of the same," be stricken out for the pur-
