

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Dec. 23, 1811.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

The bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, An act to establish a bank and incorporate a company under the name of the Elkton Bank of Maryland, having been rejected by your house, we return it to you, and hope on re consideration you will agree to pass the same. The inconveniences experienced by that bank from the present restriction are of that serious nature that we are induced again to press the subject upon your attention.

By order,

JOHN BREWER, Clk.

Which was read.

The bill entitled, An act to legitimate the acknowledged children of Peter Rouck and Jacob Kershner, of Washington county, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill entitled, An act to authorise a lottery for the benefit of Salisbury in Somerset and Worcester counties, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed.

1st. After the word "engine in the 3d line of the 2d page, insert "for the use of the town of Salisbury."

2d. After the word "therefor" in the 3d line of the 2d page insert "in said town"

The resolution in favor of John J. Jacob was read the second time and dissented from.

The following message was read and agreed to:

BY THE SENATE, Dec. 23, 1811.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have negatived the resolution in favor of John J. Jacob, principally because the relief extended to him is a departure from the mode adopted towards other officers. If your house will originate a resolution placing him on the pension or half pay list, it will meet with a favorable reception from us.

By order,

T. ROGERS, Clk.

The bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, An act for the relief of Rufus Bigelow and John G. Proud of the city of Baltimore was read the second time by special order and will pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER, 24, 1811.

THE Senate met.—Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Messrs. L. Hollingsworth and N. Williams appeared in the senate.
