The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, An act to ascertain the allowance of members of the General Assembly, electors of senate and electors of president and vice president of the United States, passed by that house Dec. 25, 1811; and the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Dec, 24, 1811.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

Believing that the business before us may be finished by Saturday the 28th instant, we propose, with the concurrence of your house to close the session on that day.

By order,

JOHN BREWER, Clk.

Which were severally read the first time and the bill ordered to lie on the table. Also, returns the bill entitled, An act separating the business of the court of chancery, and authorising the holding sessions of the said court for the Eastern Shore, and for other purposes; endorsed, "by the house of delegates, Dec. 24, 1811." read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments:

Amendments proposed.

1st. After the word "kind" in the 14th line of the 8th page insert, "except cases for the sale of real estate."

2d. After the word "court," in the last line but one of the bill, insert "or county court."

3d. At the end of the bill add, "Be it enacted, That the several county courts of this state, may exercise original equity jurisdiction in all cases, in the same manner that they now exercise equity jurisdiction by virtue of any law of this state.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That each of the judges of the several judicial districts of this state, during vacation, shall have the same power to grant and enforce within their respective judicial districts, writs of injunction in the same manner and with the same limitation as the chancellor of the state can or may exercise.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of some one of the associate judges of the several judicial districts of this state to attend at the court house of the several counties in their several judicial districts, at some day between the several sessions of their court, who shall have power to make all necessary orders touching any subject matter in the said respective courts, upon the equity side, brought or depending therein; and it shall
