

be the duty of the several clerks of the several counties in this state, to attend the said judge on the said days, who shall make due entry of all such matters and things as shall or may be ordered as aforesaid by the said judge; and the several county courts in this state are hereby instructed at their first court next after the passage of this act, to appoint the several days on which the said judge shall attend as aforesaid, which said days shall be as nearly as may be equi-distant between the terms of the several and respective county courts.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That the several county courts shall have full power and authority to appoint an auditor to said court, and he shall have such compensation as the said courts shall allow, not exceeding two dollars per day for every day he shall be necessarily engaged in auditing any accounts, to be charged and taxed in the costs in the same manner as is now practised in chancery.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That all and every person or persons who shall or may think themselves aggrieved by the decree of any county court, in any case of which such county court may have an equity jurisdiction by virtue of this act, or of any law of this state, shall be at liberty in all cases, to appeal to the court of appeals of the respective shore, and in the same manner and under the same circumstances; and such appeals shall have the same legal effect and consequences as appeals prosecuted from the court of chancery to the court of appeals now have.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That the clerks of the several county courts in this state shall act as registers for the several counties, in the same manner, and with the same power as the register in chancery now does; and the sheriffs of the several counties shall execute and return all process which may issue from any court by virtue of this act, in the like manner as they would have been compelled in case the same had issued from the court of chancery.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorise and empower any interference by the several county courts, or by the judges thereof, in any cause or process now depending or hereafter to be brought or hereafter to be issued before or by the chancellor of Maryland; or to change the manner of issuing writs of error.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to allow the several clerks of the several counties of this state to ask or demand any larger or greater fees for the performing any services under this act than are now allowed by the law of this state for the like services by them performed.
