

the act entitled, A further supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state, endorsed "by the house of delegates January 6, 1812; read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments."

Amendments proposed.

1. Strike out the word "further" in the title of the bill.
2. Strike out the words "entitled, A further supplement to the act," also in the title of the bill.
3. Strike out the 6th enacting clause on the 4th page of the bill and insert "And be it enacted, That the field officers and captains of cavalry shall meet in the city of Baltimore on the second Monday in March next, in uniform, and completely equipped; and they or a majority of them, when so met, may agree upon a system of cavalry tactics and trumpet soundings, and an uniform dress for the cavalry field officers of this state, whether regimental or general; and the result of the meeting herein above mentioned, shall be forthwith transmitted to the governor of the state, signed by the officers present or a majority of them; who shall thereupon make the same public by proclamation, and which determination of the said meeting, when so published, shall become binding and obligatory upon the field officers, captains and subalterns of all troops concerned, to adopt within six months thereafter, under the penalties imposed for disobedience of orders by the act to which this is a supplement."
4. In the 4th line from the bottom of the 6th page, after the word "who" insert "have or."
5. Strike out the 14th section beginning on the 8th page, and ending on the 9th.
6. Strike out the word "thirty" in the 6th line of the 15th section on page 9, and insert "twenty."
7. At the end of the same section add, "or shall remove out of the cavalry regimental district."

Which were severally read the first and second time, assented to and ordered to be engrossed.

On motion, the question was put, Will the senate proceed to the second reading of the amendments to the bill entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road leading to Cumberland and for the extension of the charters of the several banks in the city of Baltimore?

The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Thomas, (president,) Bruce, Hawkins, L. Hollingsworth, W. Hollingsworth, MacCreery and N. Williams.—7.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Brown, Davis, Dorsey, Frazier, Holbrook, Lloyd and Tabbs.—7.

So it was determined in the negative.
