On motion by Mr. C Dorsey, the following message was read, agreed to and sent to the senate :

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, June 15, 1812.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

A sufficient number of members are now attending, and we are ready to proceed to business. We have appointed Messrs. C. Dorsey and Stevens on the part of this house, to wait on his excellency the governor, in conjunction with such gentlemen as may be appointed by your house; and to inform him that we are prepared to receive any communication which he may deem expedient to make to the General Assembly.

By order,

JOHN BREWER, Clk.

On motion by Mr. Groome, the following order was read :

Ordered, That this house sit during the present session, from eight until twelve in the forenoon, and from three until six o'clock in the afternoon, for the dispatch of public business.

On motion by Mr. Bowles, the question was put, that the word "eight" be stricken out, for the purpose of inserting "nine?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, that the house assent to the said order? Resolved in the affirmative.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message :

BY THE SENATE, June 15, 1812.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of this day, and have appointed Messrs. Brown and Davis to join the gentlemen named by your message, to wait on his excellency the governor, and inform him that we are ready to receive any communications he may deem it necessary to make to the General Assembly.

By order,

THO'S ROGERS, Clk.

Which was read.
