On motion by Mr. Quinton, Leave given to bring in a bill entitled, an act to repeal an act of assembly therein mentioned. Ordered, that Messrs. Quinton, Dorsey and Bayly, be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. Hogg from the committee delivers the following report :

The committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of South Susquehanna hundred, in Cecil county, praying for a road to begin at the public road leading from the lower ferry on the river Susquehanna to New London at or near John McGredy's fording on Principio creek, thence along the line to the lands of William Cameron and the heirs of John Cather, thence through the lands of the heirs of William Kilpatrick, thence through lands of John Cord till it intersects the public road leading from Charles town to Lancaster, at or near the dwelling house of the said John Cord; and the counter petition thereto, beg leave to report, that they have had the same under their most serious consideration, and find the facts as stated in the latter to be true. They therefore are of opinion that the road as prayed for ought not to be granted, and recommend that the petitioners praying the same have leave to withdraw their petition.

By order,

WM. K. LAMBDIN, Clk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order and concurred in.

And the following message :

BY THE SENATE, January 20, 1815.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The bill entitled, an act to provide for the better defence of the state, and prevent the necessity of frequent calls of the militia, which originated in your house, being a money bill, the constitution does not permit the senate to propose any amendment to it. We therefore return you the bill, hoping that you will expunge such clauses as make it a money bill, so that the senate may have the power of proposing such amendments as they may deem necessary.

By order,

THOS. ROGERS, Clk.

Which was read.

On motion by Mr. Dorsey, the question was put, that the house reconsider the bill entitled, an act to provide for the better defence of the state, and to prevent the necessity of frequent calls of the militia? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Dorsey, the question was put, that the bill be amended by striking out that section thereof which makes an appropriation of three hundred thousand dollars for enlisting the troops mentioned in the bill, and also that clause thereof which relates to the bounty to be given to recruits? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put that the house pass the bill as amended? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:
